For Immediate Release

BSNB Employees Select More than 40 Not-for-Profits to Receive Donations

BALLSTON SPA, NY – February 10, 2012 — BSNB announced today that the bank is making end of year donations to more than forty not-for-profit organizations that support those in need in the local community. Through a program initiated in 2009, more than $25,000 will be distributed to a variety of organizations selected by BSNB employees. Organizations receiving funding include local food pantries, veteran's programs, community libraries, education foundations, community centers, first responders, youth programs and health and human services groups.

"The program is designed to recognize and support the volunteer efforts of our staff," stated Christopher R. Dowd, President and CEO. "At BSNB, we strongly believe that through financial support and the volunteer efforts of our staff, we can make a positive difference and help strengthen our local community."
