BSNB Recognizes Employees for Volunteer Efforts and Donates $6,500

BALLSTON SPA, N.Y. – March 20, 2015 – Ballston Spa National Bank recently recognized 10 employees with Community Support Awards and donated $6,500 to area not-for-profits in appreciation of employee volunteer efforts.

Through the bank's Volunteers in Action program, all bank employees are encouraged to support the community by volunteering their time. Of the more than 8,000 volunteer hours worked by all BSNB staff members during 2014, the 10 award recipients were honored for their contribution of more than 3,000 hours. The recipients are: Jamie Clark, James Ireland, Melissa Jennings, Stephanie Loukes, Jenifer Norman, Colleen Pickett, Deborah Poulin, Jill Robbins, Susan Slovic and Cathy Young. These employees volunteered their time through activities organized by BSNB as well as through individual efforts.

In appreciation of employee volunteer efforts, BSNB will award The Albany Medical Center Foundation, Rebuilding Together Saratoga County, and Saratoga County Economic Opportunity Council with donations totaling $6,500.

"We have a responsibility to the communities where we do business, and this year's award recipients have embraced this philosophy and underscore our commitment," said BSNB President and CEO Christopher R. Dowd.
