BSNB Welcomes Two Mortgage Originators to Retail Lending Department

BALLSTON SPA, N.Y. – Sept. 17, 2015 — Two mortgage originators recently joined the residential lending department at Ballston Spa National Bank according to BSNB President and CEO Chris Dowd. In these positions, Noelle Kahler and Joshua Myers will be responsible for working with new and existing customers to originate residential mortgage loan products while maximizing customer relationships and enhancing the customer experience.

Kahler joined BSNB in April 2012 working in the retail lending department. The Schuylerville resident earned her associate degree from SUNY Adirondack, is a member of the bank's Customer Service Committee and is active in the community. As part of the BSNB Volunteers in Action program, she has volunteered with Junior Achievement, Rebuilding Together Saratoga County and has also participated in BSNB's annual Electronics Recycling and Document Shredding Day.

Myers has been with BSNB since 2010 when he was hired as a customer service representative and was most recently promoted to mortgage originator. The Ballston Spa native earned his bachelor's degree from Sage College of Albany. An avid and accomplished runner, Myers has represented BSNB in multiple events over the years.

The new mortgage originators will support the bank's existing offices, as well as its new office in Latham. The Latham Office, the bank's first venture into Albany County, specializes in efficient, state-of-the-art commercial banking services and is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. As a full service location, customers have access to commercial and personal banking services, mortgage and consumer loans, as well as trust and investment services. In addition, customers have the option of managing their relationship through the bank's technology-based services – including an online Mortgage Center, Mobile Banking, Online Banking and Cash Management, and Remote Deposit.
